How we write

Every figure on our website and in our guides comes from an official or named source and carries the date we checked it: the Ministry of Culture, INEI, MINCETUR, SERNANP, PeruRail and others. When a source changes, we update the page: in October 2026 we moved all town altitudes to INEI's 2025 Cusco statistical compendium.

Our story

Salas Travel Peru was born from the wish to share the culture, history and landscapes of Peru with the world. Based in Cusco, the heart of the Inca Empire, we believe travelling is more than visiting places: it is about connecting with people, traditions and nature in a responsible way.
